(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

FRENCH BANK SALVAGE BILL

CONDITIONS FOR REOPENING.

SEVERAL SENATORS HOSTILE.

PARIS, February 19.

M. Jeanneney's report recommending the adoption of the Banque Industrielle de Chine bill, which was unanimously adopted by the Senate Finance Committee, lays down the conditions for any acceptance of a definite project to refloat the bank, including, according to the Matin, energetic prosecution of the guilty parties; payment of the uncalled part of the company's shares; drastic changes in the bank's directing staff both the board and high officials; exact evaluation of the bank's liabilities; future state control of the bank; and recovery of unpaid debts. Several senators have already intimated their intention to oppose the bill. Public debate has been fixed for February 28.

ANOTHER COMMITTEE.

PARIS, February 17.

The matter of the Banque Industrielle de Chine came before the Senate committee of foreign affairs. The Reporter M. Regnaud made a strong plea in favour of acceptance of the government plan and the Banque's refloating. The debate is to be resumed next week.

IRISH TENSION RELAXED.

ARRESTED SINN FEINERS RELEASED.

ALSO MORE KIDNAPPED ULSTER MEN.

LONDON, February 19.

The tension in Ireland has been further relaxed by official news that the Viceroy has ordered the release of a party of Sinn Feiners whose arrest by Ulster supporters while allegedly proceeding to a football match in Londonderry had been the cause of much agitation in South Ireland. On the other hand Mr. Michael Collins has ordered the release of eighteen further kidnapped Ulster men.

TRADE WITH THE FAR EAST.

LORD NORTHCLIFFE'S VIEWS.

MARSEILLES, February 19.

Lord Northcliffe declared that he was convinced in spite of the serious Indian Egyptian and Palestinian problems, the British Empire and the British share in the commerce of Far Eastern countries were never relatively in a more hopeful condition. France was the second colonising power in the world. She had territories which were models of organisation but some of them were insufficiently known to the British or to the French themselves.

SEAMEN'S STRIKE.

AN ENCOURAGING MEETING.

A more hopeful spirit regarding the strike seemed to be abroad this morning, although no definite settlement is yet in view. The situation has become more encouraging following Saturday's meeting at the Tung Wah Hospital. It is possible that this meeting may have very far reaching effects. It may possibly dispose of the points at issue between the Government and strikers, without a settlement of which the shipowners must still be in the back ground. Saturday's meeting was of a private nature but it has been described as the best that has been held between the Tung Wah Hospital and the delegates of the striking seamen. It was satisfactory both from the point of view of the earnest consideration given to the matters under discussion and the result. At this gathering the representatives of the Tung Wah Hospital placed before the seamen certain proposals to which they agreed. These have now been forwarded to the Government and although they cannot yet be made public it is understood they bring the chances of arbitration considerably nearer. The proposals and the replies will be awaited with interest.

The position of the Tung Wah Hospital in the matter was discussed with a well known Chinese gentleman. "The Hospital," he said, referring to Saturday's meeting "considers that it has done all it can. It is unlikely that there will be any further meetings because I think they would simply come back to the same points." He explained however that this did not mean that the Hospital would take no further interest in effecting a settlement. It is still willing and anxious to do all possible.

As stated above, the shipowners are in the background just now pending a solution of the difficulties confronting the Government and the strikers. A few ships entered and cleared during the weekend. The most interesting arrival was the "Kwangchow" from Hoibow this morning. She brought in a good cargo of bullocks, pigs, fowls and fresh eggs. This is the first cargo of such a nature which has arrived for some days. Another arrival was the "Uda" with motor spirit for the Asiatic Petroleum Company. The clearances included the "Azama Maru" bound for Hainan Head for salvage operations on the wrecked "Manji Maru." The "Yodo Maru," cleared for Whampoa with a cargo of coal. The "Keystone State" and "Golden State" have also departed.

NO SETTLEMENT YET.

This morning the seamen's delegates were informed of the Government's attitude on the proposals forwarded through the Tung Wah Hospital. While the shipowners have made a further concession the Government stands firm on the question of reopening the Union. The seamen are now considering the reply. On present information there seem small chances of the deadlock being removed. The proposals placed before the Government were as follows:-

PRINCE'S DELHI VISIT.

IMPRESSIVE SCENES.

DELHI, February 11.

The Prince of Wales received an enthusiastic reception. The streets were gaily decorated and were packed with spectators. It is officially estimated that 100,000 people were present. The success of the visit broke the halt in the native city which the non-cooperators' organisation then called off.

The Prince, who is residing in a charming little house specially built for him in the grounds of the viceregal lodge, unveiled the all-Indian Edward VII memorial. This was an impressive spectacle.

The Prince was entertained by the Viceroy at a state banquet of great splendour. He was formally welcomed to India by the Viceroy at a durbar at which four maharajahs delivered addresses of welcome on behalf of the ruling prince and chiefs. The State Council and Legislative Assembly also presented an address. Immense crowds watched the brilliant corteges.

The Prince also laid the foundation stone of the Kitchener College for the sons of Indian officers. A great military pageant was watched by crowds of spectators.

INDIA'S ARMY.

SAFETY LIMIT.

DELHI, February 19.

Lord Rawlinson, Commander-in-Chief of the Army in India, in a statement to English and Indian journalists, explained the necessity of stronger armies in India. He declared that the frontier tribes if they combined could raise 130,000 splendid well-armed fighters. He pointed out that British troops in India and the Indian cavalry had already been reduced and the military had been called out 24 times in February to assist the police. India's contribution to naval defence was only £100,000. He had done his utmost to reduce expenditure on the army but he declined to exceed the safety limit.

EGYPT'S FUTURE.

AND PRESENT.

LONDON, February 19.

While General Allenby is about to go to Egypt to communicate to the Sultan the Egyptian agreement which it is unofficially stated provides for abolition of the protectorate and establishment of the fullest responsible government with safeguards for imperial communications and protection of foreigners, there has been a series of anti-British revolver attacks in Cairo resulting up to the present in two deaths, namely Mr. Aldred Brown, controller-general of the Ministry of Education, and an engineer named Michael Jordan, a New Zealander employed by a French firm. Two other British officials were wounded but not seriously.

SHIPOWNERS MEET.

The shipowners had a meeting on Sunday and their answer was given to the men's delegates this morning by the Secretary for Chinese Affairs. This was that the owners agreed to concede to the request of the seamen to the extent of letting their per cent, offer be taken as the minimum figure from which the work of the arbitrators should start.

On the question of opening the Union the Government says this remains as in the last proclamation. This, it will be remembered, requires the seamen to return to work as an evidence of freedom from unlawfulness. Regarding arbitration the Secretary for Chinese Affairs stated that H. H. the Governor will be prepared to consider any method of nominating arbitrators for his final decision that may be agreed upon between the two parties.

RASPUTIN'S MURDER.

SIR BASIL THOMSON'S ACCOUNT.

Sir Basil Thomson, having lost the newly created post of Chief of the Political Police, has been contributing his reminiscences to the Times. It might be thought that the case of Rasputin would not be likely to come before the English political police, but it seems to have come before Sir Basil Thomson in some way, and it is to be assumed that up to a certain point the political police is international. It should perhaps be explained that Sir Basil has no desire to show how helpless political police are in preventing political crime, though it might be thought this was his object in the following story. He says:—

Many accounts of the assassination of Rasputin have been published, varying in detail. I examined one of the persons principally concerned in the business, who had no motive for misrepresenting what had occurred. All the assassins were convinced that Rasputin was engaged in a plot to persuade the Tsar to make a separate peace with Germany, and just before Christmas Rasputin is said to have revealed the whole plan in a burst of confidence. The separate peace was to be proclaimed on January 1st, 1917. How true this part of the story might be I was not in a position to judge. Rasputin was under triple police protection. Besides the Imperial detective, there was one appointed by a group of bankers and another, it was alleged, by the Germans [?]. On the fatal evening Rasputin visited the house of Prince Yusupov, and was taken down to a dining-room in the basement. There some bottles of port and Madeira specially prepared for him were set out. The wine had previously been tested upon one of the dogs that infested the courtyard of Russian houses, and the dog had died almost immediately. Rasputin drank altogether six glasses without any apparent effect, and his companion became persuaded that this sinister, herculean monk was under Satan's protection. Making some excuse, he climbed to the room above, where his companions were assembled and returned to the room with a revolver which they lent him. He found Rasputin leaning on his hands, and puffing as if he were not feeling well. Presently he staggered to his feet and went over to an ink-bottle. At that moment while he was standing before the ink-bottle the pistol was fired. He uttered a great cry and fell backwards on the floor.

On hearing the shot those who were waiting upstairs came down with a doctor, who examined the wound and pronounced life extinct. They then went away to make arrangements about the removal of the body, but one of them came back after a few minutes to make sure that he was really dead, for they all seemed to have believed that a Satanic power had given him superhuman strength. The pulse was not beating. The man drew aside the monk's habit to feel the heart, and at that moment Rasputin with a terrible cry seized him by the throat. There was a terrible struggle, for Rasputin was a man of great physical strength, but the other succeeded in throwing him and escaping from the room. Upstairs he found a member of the Duma, who still had three cartridges left in his revolver. The two men came out on the landing and looking down saw the great bullet-head of Rasputin ascending the stairs. He was crawling up on all fours like a bear. They withdrew again into the room and saw him stagger to his feet and make for the door into the courtyard. The snow was thick upon the ground and it was dark, but they could see him against the background of snow and the second man fired three shots. Rasputin continued to run a few paces then fell close to the gateway leading into the street. He had been shot through the head.

One of the assassins was standing by the body when there came an incessant knocking on the gate. It must have been like the famous scene in Shelley's "Cenci." The police had heard the shots and had sent to inquire what was wrong. The body was lying only a few feet from the gate. Boldness was the only course, so the assassin opened the gate and took a high tone with the constable, explaining that here had been a dinner party and that one of the guests had fired his revolver at a dog in the courtyard and killed it. The man went off apparently satisfied.

There were now several things to do; the body had to be dragged into the house and a dog had to be killed and hid in its place. My informant was doing this single-handed when he heard voices in the house. The same policeman had been sent back to the front door to make further inquiries. He was questioning the assassin who had entirely lost his head and had blurted out, "Yes, we have killed Rasputin." My informant stepped boldly into the "branch." "Look at him," he said, "the wine has turned his head. When the dog was shot I said: 'What a pity! He was not Rasputin,' and this friend of mine in his fuddled state has taken it literally and thinks we have done it." It is difficult to understand how even a Russian policeman could have accepted such

SIR W. ORPEN.

"AWFUL EXAMPLE" TO CIGARETTE SMOKERS.

Having smoked approximately 600,000 cigarettes since his boyhood, Sir William Orpen, R.A., the portrait painter, who is 43, was recently taken seriously ill with nicotine poisoning. He is now well on the road to recovery, and was able to tell a reporter about his illness and his smoking achievements. "Until my illness I averaged 50 cigarettes a day," he said. "The doctor tells me that there would have been no trouble if I had not inhaled. I began smoking when I was seven. I saw my brother smoking and went out and copied him with a bit of brown paper rolled up in the shape of a cigarette."

"I think I have smoked every day since. It was my custom to smoke before my morning bath and in it. But I am afraid those days are past. Nicotine poisoning is a lesson. The chief symptoms were loss of appetite and 'smokers' heart.' The least effort made me dizzy. For days I had to have strychnine injections. Also—an added infliction—I had to knock off smoking."

"Let me tell all excessive smokers that nicotine poisoning is a most painful business. Fortunately, in my case it has been cured. I knew I had recovered when I made an 80 break at billiards one day. I have appeared at my club as an awful example of the cigarette habit, but I am afraid I have not so far got any converts."

Then, as an afterthought, Sir William took from his pocket a packet of cigarettes and said: "Have one?" The packet was one that holds 20, but there were only 18 left. Looking reflectively at the gap in the ranks, he said: "Yes; that's all I have had to day," and he put the packet away in his pocket quickly, as one who thrusts aside temptation.

An explanation, but one has to remember that the assassination of such a personage as Rasputin, who was under direct Imperial protection, was to the mind of the ordinary Russian inconceivable, and that it was questioning persons of high rank. While the police agent was recounting his visit to his superior a car arrived and the body was taken to the bridge and dropped into the Neva, where, as we all know, it was found some three days later.

HONGKONG, MONDAY, FEB. 20, 1922.

TO-DAY'S PREOCCUPATIONS.

Of our life out here, might the French proverb be born—that proverb which says he more it changes, the more it is the same thing. On Friday our leading article discussed certain aspects of company directors, and as if to give it point we had the Bank meeting and the Waterboat meeting. Sunday saw some typical yacht racing, and to-day we suppose we may take it for granted that the minds of our readers are less interested in newspaper topics than in whether Nestor or Jaybird will win the first race this afternoon. Must Roman Pride be the pride of the Maidens, and Spotted Sand be spotted as a certain dividend payer in the Third Race? These are free "tips," but they are not matters we can enlarge upon in the newspaper way. Perhaps, in view of what the Chairman at the Bank Meeting said about newspapers and the Consortium, this is just as well. All newspapers are like well-meaning public servants, we suppose. Certainly the China Mail is, and we felt Missus Doleful while reading Mr. Edkin's remarks about superfluous newspaper explanations of the Consortium. A small taste of comfort, like a whiff of Stephen's, (this analogy may be appreciated after the Fourth Race) reached us with the reflection that we could not be one of the papers he had in mind, which, we gather, had been putting into the Chinese mind the suspicion that was expressed in Shakespeare's phraseology as "protesting too much," or in a well known French form which says he who volunteers self excuses himself accuses. It may well be that in trying to be informative, newspapers may be undiplomatic. There are more factors to consider in every problem than any human mind, even the alert mind of a business man, is likely to observe in full focus. On the home run of yesterday's yacht race, from Pengshan, La Cigale sailed up the northern or Kowloon side, and Feathers chose the Southern or Hongkong route, believing that the adverse tide would be stronger on La Cigale's route. So it was, and for a brief while the smaller craft overhauled and was in front of the big fellow. It was overlooked that when at three the tide turned and became advantageous, the others would benefit by it. It was more of a drifting than a sailing match for a while. In the same way we think something was overlooked at the Waterboat meeting when Mr. Seth was ruled out of order on the ground that the Articles of Association empowered the directors to do a certain thing the opposite of what he was proposing. They could have said: "Mr. Seth. The directors have considered your arguments, and have decided against them, and as they have the power to put their own decision into effect, your amendment will be useless." That would have been all right. But he was not out of order, because there is nothing in such an Article to prevent the directors, should they be impressed by the arguments and wishes of the shareholders, from abstaining from the exercise of the special power such as article gives them. However, as we have already suggested, this is not the time for thinking out or explaining such matters. "They're off" is an exclamation that to-day has two meanings.

Crime Wave.

Local sceptics smiled on Saturday when they read the excuse advanced by a Chinese from Pittsburgh for bringing a revolver into the Colony. Accustomed, he said, to wear jewellery in the United States he carried the weapon for personal protection. Local sceptics smiled because America appealed to them as a far safer place than (say) Yaumati. That they were wrong, latest mail news from New York would seem to indicate. A "crime wave" is sweeping the country and the Washington Attorney-General has been impelled to request his New York colleagues to call a conference of all public prosecutors to consider action for the better enforcement of the criminal law. Authorities differ, we are told, regarding the cause of the alarming frequency of atrocious murders, daring highway robberies, desperate acts of burglary, and the invasion of shops and banks by armed desperadoes who do not hesitate to shoot whenever resistance is offered. "It is true of New York and many other large cities that never a night passes without citizens being held up at the pistol's point, even in main thoroughfares, and robbed, beaten, and frequently killed. Various causes are suggested—prohibition, bad liquor, hard times, and easy bail. How urgent is the conference of public prosecutors to evolve some tangible plan to check this lawless wave is shown by the alarming way crime continues unabated in spite of the efforts of swarms of police and detectives. Verily, our Pittsburgh friend did need his gun.

Staggering.

Hongkong's losses through the shipping strike must run into millions but they pile into insignificance beside those of the Homeland last year when it is estimated trade disputes lost the country 86,000,000 working days. The figure is staggering—more than 235,000 years! The number of workers involved was approximately 1,800,000. According to the Labour Gazette, the number of trade disputes begun in 1921 causing a stoppage of work was 800. This figure, startling though it sounds, was less than one half the 1920 total and much below the totals for either 1918 or 1919. Owing, however, to the magnitude of the coal mining dispute, it is explained, the number of workpeople involved in disputes last year was little less than in 1920 and greater than in any previous year except 1919. As one might expect, with a total so appalling, the aggregate loss of time through disputes last year was much in excess of any hitherto recorded. Few men have eighty years to live, and the mind recoils at the thought of 350,000 years' labour lost. Had the country not given proof of its strength by surviving this reckless waste one would have promptly declared, as one would have considered the prospect of a couple of months ago, that it must mean ruin complete and final. And the homeland, like the Colony, is still far from that.

A Washout.

The Commission appointed by the Supreme Council to investigate the question has declared the Leipzig trials of alleged war criminals to be a washout. The Commission's unanimous finding against the Leipzig Court was that, except in a few cases, the Court did not try to ascertain the truth; that the few punishments which it inflicted were too light; that it would be useless to submit further cases for trial by it; and that the Allies should demand from Germany the surrender of those tried for retrial by allied Courts. It has been pointed out by the writer of a book on the subject that the main facts that emerged from the trials were that a criminal act is not excused by the orders of a superior officer, and that German soldiers were tried and punished like civilian criminals for acts committed in the pursuit of their patriotic military duties. It was a German Court and its sentences however moderate they may have been, must have had a considerable moral effect in German eyes, while Allied sentences, as the Daily Chronicle emphasizes, would have none. The actual results of the trials show that five out of six British prosecutions were successful, while the French were only able to show three one charge out of five and the Belgians were "blown out" on this only case. France and Belgium will probably insist on the recommendations of the Commission being given effect to but the view plan would be to let matters rest where they are.

HONGKONG'S 1922 RACE MEETING.

FIXTURE OPENS IN FINE WEATHER.

REPULSE BAY CHIEF WINS GARRISON CUP.

Smiling a trifle wanly at first though he peeped up banks of cloud the sun perked up as the morning advanced and when the first saddling bell sent out its clattering summons at 11.30 Hongkong's 1922 Race Meeting had opened in pleasant weather.

The strike pushed into the background by the most important social event in all the year, Hongkong settled down seriously to the business of enjoying itself. And that was no difficult matter with such fine weather and in so charming a setting as Happy Valley proved to-day. For the pageant of colour that moved around and about the stands the smiling green of the hills furnished a pleasant background.

It was good to see that the Jockey Club people had made an earnest effort to prevent the congestion which has hitherto made it a struggle to get tickets in the "straight out" department of the pari-mutuel. The cash sweeps have been transferred from their old situation under the stand to the entrance end of the building where the "place" betting is done.

Last week's rains did not improve the track and this had interfered a good deal with training operations. The going was on the heavy side this morning and the calculations made by students of "form" stood a good chance of being upset. Still as most of the Derby candidates were out to-day's fixture was full of interest as a "pipe-opener" from which useful deductions might be drawn for the big day to-morrow.

Arriving just after 12.30 with Lady Stubbs and accompanied by his private secretary, Mr. Eric Rice, H.E. the Governor was welcomed by the Chief Justice, Sir William Rees Davies and Sir Paul Chater.

When the field in the first race was sent away, well on time, a big crowd had already gathered. By tram-car, motor-car and ricksha they came and the Hongkong Hotel's new motor Coaches, playing at ten minute intervals from the Hotel to Happy Valley, had their share of the traffic.

On the lawn the band of H. M. S. "Hawkins" by kind permission of Admiral Duff, furnished a capital series of instrumental selections under the baton of Bandmaster E. J. M. Watson. Their programme was as follows:—

March....."Leonidas."
Overture....."French Comedy."
Fox Trot....."Top Hole."
Valse....."Love's Lullaby."
Selection....."Patience."
One Step....."Speed."
Fox Trot....."Ain't We Got Fun."
Selection....."Irene."
One Step....."Hongkong."
Selection....."Francis and Day 29th Selection."

Fox Trot....."Avalon."
Valse....."Blowing Bubbles."
One Step....."Camouflage."
Fox Trot....."Whispering."

Mr. Bell-Irving's Pull Devil Baker was running third but had to give place to Shek O Chief. Coming into the home straight Kingu King and Flying Mouse were fighting it out for first place with the Dunlin coming up in 6th to displace Shek O Chief. Kingu King finished a length and a half in front of Flying Mouse, with the Dunlin third a good length behind. The time taken was 1 min. 37.4 secs.

Mosaic Tile, the favourite, and Bullfinch led the rest and at the Rock they were racing together neck and neck. Mountain Bear was close behind and coming up at the bend challenged Mosaic Tile for the rest of the way, just scraping home by a short head. ## ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE.

URGENT NEED OF A LABORATORY STRESSED.

H.E. the Governor distributed the prizes to St. Joseph's College students on Saturday afternoon, before a large gathering of the school's friends, including Bishop Pozzoni and the Hon. Mr. E. A. Irving (Director of Education).

The proceedings opened with an excellent concert programme ably presented by the students, assisted by Rev. Fr. Riganti, Mr. Ed. McCarthy, Professor Gonzales and Mr. Harry Ore. Professor Gonzales's contributions included violin, piano-fiddle and banjo solos, accompanied at the piano by Mr. Ore. Eleven pupils took part in a Juvenile Parliamentary Debate (subject: "School Holidays Bill"). The boys sustained their parts well, and their excellent enunciation greatly impressed the audience. Those taking part were: C. Silva (Speaker), M. Fishman, S. Copsy, F. X. Silva, A. Muller, A. Gmenez and P. Castilho (Government), C. Osmund, M. Silva, G. Fung, G. d'Aquino, J. Dillon and L. E. de Sousa (Opposition).

THE REPORT.

The Rev. Bro. Michael, Director of the College, then presented his report as follows:—

Your Excellency Lordship, Rev. Clergy, Ladies and Gentlemen,—Owing to the transfer of Rev. Bro. Marican to Singapore, it has become my pleasing and most agreeable task to welcome your Excellency and your Gracious Lady to our prize giving, and to say in my own name, and that of our entire staff that we appreciate the honour you have conferred upon us, and heartily thank you for the same. Your visit this afternoon is a most convincing proof of the interest you have always taken in our College, and shows how anxious you are to have it the banner school of the Colony.

The report that I submit to your Excellency has been the work of Rev. Bro. Marican and his devoted staff, as well as that of Rev. Bro. Aimar. No other Brother has done as much for St. Joseph's College as Brother Aimar. It was through his influence, being greatly assisted by His Lordship who went so far as to mortgage his house to raise the required earnest money, that this present property has been secured and our new school erected, which from an architectural point of view, has no rival in the Colony. It was he also who secured our branch school in Kowloon. This good Brother is still on leave, but it is hoped that he will be with us again before the close of the present year.

Our average enrolment during the past year was 593 and our average attendance 534. Our Kowloon branch school had an enrolment of 80 and an average attendance of 76. As yet we have not been able to impress upon the minds of some parents the great importance of regular attendance. For the most trifling reason and imaginary illness they keep their children from school, thus forgetting that punctuality and faithfulness to duty must be insisted upon in youth. A better understanding and a more thorough knowledge of the work done in class would be reached if the parents or guardians paid more attention to the weekly reports, monthly tests and quarterly examinations which each student regularly receives.

Mr. E. Ralph, Inspector of English schools in his report for 1921 says, "I visited and inspected the College on the 8th and 9th of December, and found everything in excellent condition and he recommended it for the highest possible grant."

The result of the Hongkong University Examinations for June and December 1921 are—Matriculation 17, Seniors 12, and Juniors 53, ten of whom won distinction. The names have been already published in the daily papers.

REVISED SYLLABUS

I wish to remark here that we are revising our syllabus where great attention is given to English in all its phases as well as to science and to special commercial branches so that beginning with the present year, no boy will be promoted to a higher class in the college unless he passes the required examinations. All will agree that the best judges of a boy's ability are those who have kept a strict account of his work during the year. I am pleased to state that a very high percentage of Portuguese boys who finish in the elementary classes are continuing in the higher classes. It is our hope and wish that these young men will not discontinue their studies until they have gone through the University.

We are still teaching exclusive of English, two European languages viz., French and Portuguese. The French Consul has presented a most valuable prize to the first student in that language, while the Portuguese Consul has placed at our disposal three scholarships which will be available in 1922. There is a gold medal given to the first student in the Chinese language. By looking through the subscription lists, I can promise as many scholarships for the leading Chinese students, as the Chinese have never refused me any request that I made for the benefit of the boys.

Our Boarding Department has been everything that could be desired. Thank God we have had no sickness during the year. In this Department, quality, not quantity, has been sought, and this is why we have so many on our waiting list.

ATHLETIC SUCCESSSES.

On the Athletic Field I am able to state without boasting that we have carried off a great many trophies including the three team races, the Junior and Senior Championships, and the Hongkong Football League Shield and Intermediate and Junior cups, and also the Hongkong Football League Cup (11th Division), thus showing that we are adhering to the old adage to leave nothing undone to have a sound mind in a sound body; to accomplish this we have physical drill in all the classes three times a week under the direction of a most competent instructor.

On October 12, 1921, the College was visited by a committee appointed by the Board of Education. This is what they say about the new school: "It is admirable in every detail, but the playground between the two buildings being of earth is unsatisfactory, as when it rains the boys bring the mud into the class rooms and when a dry spell comes, the wind blows the dust into the rooms."

This was seen by us long before the inspection, but the "dinero" was wanting. However, two months ago, we made an appeal to the students to with their contributions and our assistance, we were able to have it concreted. We have, however, to leave a great many almost necessary things undone, for the want of means.

This present building has been wearing her widow's weeds since 1914, and we have not been able to get enough of money together to have it painted. In the near future I intend making a "drive" in order to clear off our debts, so I hope when our collectors call on these gentlemen they will remember the widow's mite. The commission also stated that they hoped the Government would help in the expense of erecting a covered passage between the two buildings, that might be used as an assembly Hall and a gymnasium. I am happy to state that the Government has already voted $10,000 towards this building. I must take an exception to one remark of the commission "that the age limit was not observed in many cases, as Chinese boys of 17 and 18 were studying with Portuguese boys of 13 and 14, and that St. Joseph's College was especially intended for Portuguese boys." This age limit may have been overlooked in a few cases, but it is not the rule and since the Chinese New Year, none over the proper age have been admitted. I wish also to state that this college is principally for all Catholic boys in the Colony, regardless of nationality, and in pursuing this course, I am carrying out the English Law. But this does not mean that non-Catholics are admitted, as we have at the present time, among the 700 boys now on our register, more than 200 students belonging to almost every Creed and some to no Creed at all.

NEED OF A LABORATORY.

Although we are fairly equipped to carry out the present Educational requirements, we have still a great need, viz., a laboratory, where our advanced students will receive instruction in Physics, Chemistry and Biology. These branches will not only be of great help to those boys who intend entering the University—they will also greatly benefit those who intend following a business course, by teaching them to think for themselves. We have a suitable site for such a building just below our present new school, and if I were not trespassing too much on the generosity of the Government, I would ask for a building grant for this laboratory. I am sure there are many gentlemen on the prize list whose names are linked with every enterprise that is for the uplifting of the youth of this Colony, who would not only contribute the other half, but would equip at least one of these proposed classes.

In conclusion, I wish to thank our generous prize donors and in an especial manner Your Excellency, the Hon. Colonial Secretary as well as the Director of Education and the Inspector of English schools for the assistance you have been always ready to give us. Never have you refused any appeal that was for the advancement of Education. Such generosity on the part of the Government imposes on us an obligation to leave nothing undone, to impress on our students respect for authority, obedience to law, a horror for those baneful socialistic societies whose object is to ruin and make of every country what they have already made of Russia—a land of chaos and anarchy. We all know these evils cannot be prevented without religious education and Religious Instruction has always held the first place on our curriculum.

Addressing the gathering, His Excellency said that he was somewhat pressed for time and must therefore be brief. He regretted that he must first correct a misunderstanding in the Director's report. It was perfectly true that his presence was proof of the interest he had taken in St.

RACE WEEK.

CORONET THEATRE'S FINE
COMEDY.

Race week finds the popular Coronet Theatre showing a programme that will entertain the lucky winner and cheer the despondent loser like humour quick and refreshing animating the principal attraction, a clever First National feature entitled "The Inferior Sex," based on the notable stage comedy of the same name by Frank Stayton. The leading role in the capable hands of Mildred Harris Chaplin, wife of the famous Charlie, this delightful picture can therefore boast a brilliant author, a skilled producer, and a talented star. Having already won immense favour with stage audiences, the plot requires no warranty. Given the wider scope of the screen, indeed, it is even more effective in its comic realism. Sufficient is it to mention that the mainspring is the intrigue with an imaginary lover by a young wife who has been told that the best way to re-join her husband's love in a circle that regards divorce as the inevitable sequel to marriage is to arouse his jealousy—"keep him guessing." How well she succeeds is proved by the fact that this is exactly what the picture itself does with the audience—keeps it guessing.

PICTURES FOR CHILDREN.

KOWLOON THEATRE'S SPECIAL MATINEES.

Following the success of the cinema show arranged by Mrs. Severn and Mrs. Pollock for the children of Helena May Institute members and their friends, the management of the Kowloon Theatre announces that it will give a special matinee for children every Monday afternoon, reducing pictures in size if necessary to eliminate everything unsuitable for the youthful mind. Furthermore, in order to show the coming generation that jazz now almost inevitable at every entertainment does not represent the best music, the orchestra programmes will comprise selections from Sullivan's very joyous Gilbert light opera music. This afternoon will see this interesting venture undertaken with Charles Ray's "His Own Home Town" reduced from five to three reels for showing to children supplemented by other suitable pictures. Of course pictures censored for children will be shown in their original form at the usual evening performances.

Joseph's College, but it did not necessarily follow that he wished to see St. Joseph's College the banner school of the Colony. He did not wish to say it in the presence of the Director of Education. (Laughter). All he would like to say was that he wanted to see all the schools in the Colony on the same level as St. Joseph's College. (Applause). He wanted to see them as successful both on the mental and physical sides as St. Joseph's College had been and he wanted them to give such sound good character training as the Christian Brothers were well-known to have been giving throughout the world. One material point in the report that was intended for him was about the proposal to establish a laboratory. He had taken a great interest in the growth of the College and he thought the Rev. Brother Director would agree that the College had already received very considerable sums from the Government. He was glad that the money had been given, for it had been excellently spent. With regard to the proposal, he would not promise anything, especially, as he had said, in the presence of the Director of Education, He would not make any promise which he was not sure he could keep. If the Brother Director would approach the Government at a later date he would be assured of the most sympathetic consideration of his appeal. (Applause).

SATURDAY'S RACING.

A strong East wind whipped up a choppy sea in the harbour on Saturday afternoon when the 8th Championship for racing yachts took place. It spoilt what should otherwise have been an interesting race. Several boats called it off and some of those who essayed a start were all but swamped before the gun went. The wind went down a bit as the afternoon wore on and sailing conditions improved slightly in consequence. The course was Pillar Rock (S), a total distance of 11.5 miles. The results were:—
